Billy Jordan's Athletics to Play

Degnon Grays This Sunday. Billy Jordan's Bronz Athletics will tackle the Degon Grays in the third and deciding game of their series at Degond Field, opposite the Hunter's Point station of the Steinway tube, this Sunday. The teams met twice before and broke even, the Athletics taking the second game after lesing the opener. The Athletics have been beaten in only two games this season.

Billy Walsh, who recently held the Lincoln Stars scoreless, his team winning, 2 to 6, will oppose either Ancker, who had a trial with the Mackmen, or Max Hoelker, one of the best semi-pro prespects developed in this vicinity in many moons. Jim Woods will catch. A little surprise will be in store for Long Island City fans. Manager Klett has arranged for the acquisition of several new stars for the Gray time up. A preliminary game will start at 1350.
